6) Sub to reference to the Chief Secretary's Order in para 5 of the note. The D.A.S. (Joint Cadre) Rules now received are in accordance with the agreement reached between the Govt of India ~~and~~ ^{only} the Provincial Govt and are applicable to ~~only~~ ^{only} provinces. These rules have no bearing on the comments offered by this Govt to India Govt, namely, recruitment of State Officers by promotion, determination of Seniority, leave, retirement, Central Deputation quota etc.; and afford no scope for critical examination at this stage. The India Govt has been advised in this behalf and a reply from them will be awaited if approved.

It is reported that the I.A.S. case rules, 1930 are applicable to states in which the I.A.S. case has been established and that, as the I.A.S. case has been established in the States included in Part 'A' of the first schedule to the Constitution of India, the above case rules are at present applicable to these States only.

In the case of Part 'B' States these case rules, it is stated, will be applicable to them to the extent from the States from which the I.A.S. case in these States are formally accepted.

The question arises as to the determination

No. 40/49-A.I.S.
GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.
MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS.

From

Shri R.K. Rangan,
Assistant Secretary to the Government of India.

To

The Secretary to the Government of Mysore.

New Delhi-3, the 8 March, 1950.

SUBJECT:- Indian Civil and Administrative Services (Joint Cadre) Rules.

Sir,

With reference to the Ministry of States express letter No.F.23(4)-S/49-Pt.III, dated the 22nd November 1949, on the subject noted above, and your reply thereto, I am directed to forward, for your information, a copy of this Ministry's letter No.40/49-A.I.S., dated the 7th February 1950, (with enclosures) addressed to the States in part A of the First Schedule to the Constitution.

Yours faithfully,

(R.K. Rangan)
Assistant Secretary to the Government of India

No. 40/49-A.I.S.
Government of India,
MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS.

From

Shri R.C. Dutt, I.C.S.

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India,

To

The Chief Secretaries to all State Governments in part 'A' of the Schedule.

NEW DELHI-3, the 7th February, 1950.

Subject:- Indian Administrative Service and Indian Police Service - Promulgation of pay and cadre rules.

Sir;

With reference to the Ministry of Home Affairs express letter No. 40/49-AIS., dated the 12th November 1949, and your reply thereto, I am directed to forward herewith a copy each of the Indian Civil Administrative Cadre Rules, 1950, the Indian Police Cadre Rules, 1950, and the Indian Administrative and Police Services (Pay) Rules, 1950, which were notified by the Government of India in the Gazette Extraordinary dated the 25th January 1950. The replies received from the State Governments showed that though there was agreement about the basic principles underlying the proposed rules and the need to frame such rules on a statutory basis, there were differences of opinion on matters of detail pertaining mainly to the drafting of the rules. Besides, there were certain matters e.g., fixation of pay of the super time-scale posts in the Provinces, pensionary benefits admissible to the members of the All-India Services, etc., on which it had not been possible to reach final decision in the Government of India. These outstanding items would have required further consideration and in some cases further consultations with the State Governments. As pointed out in the Home Ministry's previous communication referred to, however, it was considered necessary that the rules should be promulgated before the introduction of the new Constitution. The Government of India, therefore, decided that those portions of the rules about which there was no difference of opinion and which were especially important, should be now placed on a statutory basis without waiting for comprehensive rules being framed on all the other points.

2. The Government of India have accordingly published the cadre rules in respect of the Indian Administrative Service and the Indian Police Service which would take the place of the former Reserved Posts Rules. They have also, in the Indian Administrative and Police Services (Pay) Rules, prescribed the scales of pay admissible to the members of the Services concerned on a statutory basis and included in the rules the pay attached to special posts and super time-scale posts where such pay has already been finally decided.

3. There is one further point to which the Government of India would like to draw the attention of the State Governments. The drafts circulated to the States referred to the rules as Indian Civil and Administrative Services (joint cadre) Rules. The use of the term 'joint cadre', however, attracted the criticism that it emphasized the separateness of the Indian Civil Service and the Indian Administrative Service, on the one hand, and the Indian Police.....

Police and the Indian Police Service on the other. It was suggested that the tendency should be to emphasise the identity in their functions rather than the differences in their Constitution as separate Services. The Government of India accepted this view and the use of the term 'joint cadre' has accordingly been dropped. The aggregate of posts encadred by the relevant rules, is therefore, named "Indian Civil Administrative Cadre".

Yours faithfully,

(R.C. DUTT)

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

New Delhi, (2) the 24th JANUARY, 1951.

Subject:- Indian Administrative Service -- Cadre Rules.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 13925/C.B., dated the 2nd January 1951, on the above subject, I am directed to say that the Indian Civil Administrative Cadre Rules, 1950, are applicable to all States in which the Indian Civil Administrative Cadre has been constituted. As the Indian Civil Administrative Cadre has so far been constituted only in the States included in Part A of the First Schedule to the Constitution of India, the Cadre Rules mentioned above are at present applicable to those States only. In the case of the Part B States, the Cadre Rules referred to above will be applicable to them with effect from the dates from which the Indian Civil Administrative Cadre in those States are formally constituted.

2. As regards the question relating to the determination of seniority, retirement benefits, central deputation quota for each State, etc., I am to say that they are still under consideration.

3. The delay in sending this reply is regretted.
